In Memoriam

In loving memory of Charlie R. McFadden who passed away one year ago June 25th, 1978.
You cannot say, you must not say
That he is dead He is just away!
With a cheery smile
and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be,
there;
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love there as the love of here,
Think of him still
as the same, and say
He is not dead, he is just away.
Sadly missed by wife, mother brothers and sisters.
6-28-1tc

In memory of my devoted husband Leonard Moses on his birthday June 30.
Whom God called home thirteen years ago January 15, 1966.
It was His will in my heart I love him still. His memory lingers fond and true. There's not a day I do not think of you Dear Len.
Your lovely,
Irvin
6-28-1tp

In sad remembrance of our husband, father and grandfather, Otis Ranson, who passed away July 1, 1978.
Since you left us, we are lonely,
There is a space in our heart,
No one can fill but you only,
We miss you more each day,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
No one knows the sorrow we feel,
It wasn't a shock we knew the end was near
We still wanted you here.
At rest at last,
Your life of toil has passed
In silence you suffered
With patience you bore.
Until God called you home to suffer no more.
Sadly missed by wife, daughter and family.
6-28-1tp

In a lonely graveyard
Many miles away
Where my dear son lies
In a cold, cold lonely grave.

Where the poppies grow between the tomb stones row by row.
The little poppies nod their heads as if they were talking to the dead.
